

1736 Family Crisis Center Services for CalWORKs, GROW, and GR Recipients

Where to get Services:

1736 Family Crisis Center's Community Service Centers are located at the following locations: 2116 Arlington Ave. #200, Los Angeles, CA 90018 – direct line (323)737-3900 / fax (323)737-3993 (Los Angeles) and 21707 Hawthorne Blvd. #300, Torrance, CA 90503 – direct line (310)543-9900 / fax (310)543-9910 (South Bay). The agency's website is www.1736fcc.org.

Days/Hours of Operation:

The Community Service Centers are open Monday – Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. If it is difficult to come here during our regular days and hours of operations, please notify us and we will do our best to accommodate you so you can reach goals. You can reach us at the numbers listed above.

Domestic Violence Services:

Our Community Service Centers provide individual and group counseling for domestic violence and trauma issues. Our services can help you acknowledge if you are a victim of domestic abuse, how the cycle of abuse works, and how to keep safe. We also have an in-house legal program that can help you with legal issues including restraining orders against your batterer, court preparation and representation, and custody issues. These services are available at both Community Service Centers at the numbers listed above.

Substance Abuse:

1736 Family Crisis Center staff have been trained to assess for substance abuse issues and to refer out as needed. We do not provide extensive substance abuse treatment.

Mental Health:

Our Community Service Centers offer mental health services for various mental health issues including, but not limited to, domestic violence, trauma, depression, and anxiety. We offer both individual and group counseling to help you address your mental health issues.

Educational/Vocational:

Our Community Service Centers have full-time job developers to assist you with your educational and vocational needs. They can assist you with attaining your GED, college or trade school enrollment, and job training and placement. If needed, they may also refer you to a Work Source Center.

Case Management:

Our Community Service Centers offer a variety of case management services. During your initial intake appointment these services will be reviewed with you in detail. Your case manager will develop an Individualized Service Plan to address your needs with your assistance. Our case management services include but are not limited to legal services, healthcare, mental health services, transportation, childcare, education, job training and placement.

Other Domestic Violence Services:

1736 Family Crisis Center provides emergency and transitional shelter services for victims of domestic violence. We have four confidentially located domestic violence shelters in the County of Los Angeles. Please call one of our 24-hour hotlines to learn more about these services or talk with your assigned case manager or therapist. Please call one of the following hotline numbers: (310)379-3620, (310)370-5902, (562)388-7652, (213)745-6434, (213)222-1237. In the event that our shelters are full, we will assist you in securing other shelter placement.

All services are free of charge and you will not be expected to provide our agency anything in return.